

Primitive Pursuits

Primitive Pursuits is an environmental education program of Cornell Cooperative Extension a national not-for-profit established in 1983 and based in Ithaca, New York. Our mission is to steward the health of our community by fostering life-long relationships with the natural world for children and adults.

Job Title:	Photo Journalism Internship	Date:
Direct Supervisor:	Creative Director	Yearly Salary Range:

General Purpose:

The Summer Photo Journalist captures camper experiences every week in our summer camps and creates ways that families can share in the experience.

Responsibilities:

- Take photographs and video each week at a variety of camps and locations
- Compile and organize photos in a system that can be used for the future
- Create write ups of each week that describe what happened in the camps
- Interview instructors and campers
- Create a weekly blog posting that will be sent out to the families of that week of camp every Friday.
- Other tasks that may come up in the admin related field

Education and Experience:

- Minimum 1 year as a photojournalist

Key Competencies:

- Photography experience
- Experience in deadlines and time management
- Excellent interpersonal, oral and written communication skills
- Ability to empathize with young children, parents, and Instructors
- Excellent project management skills, including ongoing prioritization of tasks
- Computer literacy, including experience with the Macintosh and/or PC-based Windows environment
- Outgoing, creative and caring personality with a strong desire to grow professionally and personally
- Passion for the natural world and environmental education.